MEDIA ADVISORY

North Dakota Department of Health Launches Media Website

BISMARCK, N.D. – The North Dakota Department of Health Office of Public Information is proud to announce the launch of a new website designed specifically for members of the working media. This website is designed to help members of the media – print, broadcast or Internet – with their information requests.

The North Dakota Department of Health media website can be found at www.nddohpressroom.gov. The website has been designed to make it easy for you, the media, to have access to health information affecting our state. Topics included on the website are:

- News releases.
- Hot topics.
- Health alerts.
- Media files.
- Fact sheets/backgrounds.
- Health observances.
- Contact information.

Members of the media also can subscribe to have news releases sent automatically to an e-mail account. If you need any additional information, contact Stacy Eberl, Public Information Coordinator, at 328.4619.
